

County of Volusia - Community Assistance

121 W. Rich Avenue DeLand, FL 32720

(386) 736-5955

Hurricane Disaster Recovery Program Overview

Relocation Assistance

Volusia County Community Assistance implements a disaster recovery program following a disaster as declared by an executive order by the President of the United States or the Governor of Florida which may provide funds related to residents who were displaced as a direct result of Hurricane Ian or Nicole.

Funds are currently available for:

- Relocation assistance for Volusia County residents

Eligibility Requirements for the Program

- Address of damaged property must be located in Volusia County except the city limits of Daytona Beach or Deltona
- Have not moved into a new property
- The household annual income cannot exceed the Area Median Income (AMI) income below:

Household Size →	1	2	3	4	5	6
1% - 80% AMI →	$43,350	$49,550	$55,750	$61,900	$66,900	$71,850
81% - 120% AMI → (Limited funding available)	$65,040	$74,400	$83,540	$92,880	$100,320	$107,760

How do I receive an application?

Applications are available online at www.volusia.org/housing-disaster or for pick-up at 121 W. Rich Avenue, DeLand. If you are unable to pick-up or access an application online, you may call 386-736-5955 or email CommunityAssistance@volusia.org to request an application be mailed to you.

Applications and supporting documents can be submitted to 121 W. Rich Avenue, DeLand or through a secure upload portal at: <https://vcservices.vcgov.org/secureupload/d/housing>.

What do I need to apply?

Application packages should include the following items:

- Completed and signed application
- Copies of the supporting documents listed on the application documentation checklist, that are applicable to your household
- Proof of FEMA application for disaster assistance and results
- Must provide documentation of being displaced from Hurricane Ian or Nicole (i.e. letter from property manager/landlord, eviction notice, etc.)

What happens after I apply?

You will be notified by mail or email as to one of the following:

- That additional information or documents are necessary
- That you are ineligible for the program, including why
- That you are eligible for the program and what will happen next